
Positive Parenting Workshop – Introduction level

Who Can We Help?

Parents who would like to improve their parenting skills. This workshop will introduce:

- + The foundations of successful parenting
- + Communication and problem solving skills
- + Solutions to common behavior problems

How We Help?

The workshop will consist of 8 meetings, 1.5 hours long. In each meeting a topic will be presented, parents will apply it by practicing it in the group, and a plan for applying it at home will be developed. The following meetings will start with trouble shooting of home practice, and presenting a new topic.

The topics:

- + How to play and talk with children
- + Positive reinforcements
- + Limit setting
- + Consequences
- + Putting it all together – ABC model
- + Teaching to problem solve

In addition, each meeting will address a common behavior parents often struggle with. Among others:

- + Bad attitude
- + Messy room
- + Homework avoidance
- + power struggle with siblings

Who We Are?

The Pediatric Consultation Center provides comprehensive neuropsychological evaluations, short term consultations and treatment for children and adolescents for a range of learning, attention, and psychological concerns. Our offices are located in Glenview and Vernon Hills. We work closely with families to offer practical, problem-focused recommendations.

Miri Arie Ph.D. is a specialist in child clinical psychology, and is experienced in working with intervention methods such as Applied-Behavioral-Analysis, Cognitive-Behavioral Therapy, Parent Management Training, Play-Therapy, and Social-Skills interventions.

Program cost:

The workshop cost $100* per session for a family (both parents are encouraged to participate), and it includes: an extended session (1.5 hours), handouts, and light refreshments.

* The Pediatric Consultation Center is a network provider for Blue Cross Blue Shield, PPO or HMO, and sessions may be covered through insurance.

Dates and Time:

Sessions begin Tuesday, February 2, 2010 7:00-8:30 pm, at the Glenview office.
